

I support RM-10352. Present conditions and usage of the amateur "160 meter" band (1.8-2.0 MHz) indicate the band should be divided into subbands by mode. The existing lack of subbands is a carryover from the time when amateurs had limited access to the band due to sharing with LORAN systems.

Thank you

James P. Miccolis N2EY